To whom it May Concern:

I received a 2002 Uniform Business Report in the mail yesterday, July 2, 2002, requesting $550 to renew our "incorporation status." I immediately contacted your office to let them know that I had not received the first notice that was mailed in January of this year.

We only purchased the business last June, and although not knowing the procedures is not an excuse, I really was not aware that there was a yearly fee and was shocked to receive a late notice for filing.

At the request of the woman I spoke with on the phone, I am enclosing a check for $150.00 in the hopes that you will waive the $400 fee for this late submittal. We are in the habit of paying all our fees and taxes on time, and the only reason this was not paid on time was due to the fact that we had not received the first notice.

I appreciate your understanding; please let me know if there will be a problem with this request.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth S. Beall
