TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

I called your offices upon discovering that my corporation had been declared inactive, and asked what I should do to rectify the matter. I explained that I hadn't recieved notice that I should file my UBR's.

The lady I spoke with looked up the files on my corporation, and discovered that the UBR information mailed to me had been returned to your office, and it was indicated in the database that this information had failed to reach me. She told me that since this notification was on file, I was not required to pay the late penalties.

Instead, I should file the enclosed form, along with the $300 in fees I should have paid to date.
