Dear Sirs,

This letter is to notify you that I have just discovered that my corporation is not valid. I went to SunTrust Bank to open another business account today and when I gave the manager my tax i.d. # she told me the corporation is no longer valid.

I have never received any notification from you that I was due to renew. This puts me in a very precarious position as the nature of my business requires me to sign contracts with lender stating that my company is in good standing. When signing these contracts, I thought my company was intact.

This is very urgent and I request that you reactivate my corporation at your earliest possible convenience.

Looking forward to hearing from you in the near future.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth A. Downes
President
