I am writing in reference to the letter that was sent to my on July 15, 2002.

I spoke to a representative from your office on July 3, 2002 regarding the filing of my corporation paper work. The lady told me to send a check for $150.00 and the form to the state and this would be ok. She also informed me that I would receive this paperwork again in January and that I must turn it in by May.

I had all my paperwork from the store at my accountants office I assumed that this was part of my taxes, I was unaware of this being separate from taxes. I am asking again that you reconsider this late fee it is a big burden for me as a small business. I will assure you that this will not happen again next year as I know that this must be paid separate.

Thank You

Steve Clark
