VI. RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL ON TRANSFER OF SHARES

No shareholder shall have the right to sell, assign, pledge, encumber, transfer, or otherwise dispose of any of the shares of the corporation without first offering such shares for sale to the corporation at a price to be agreed upon between the offeror and the corporation. If the parties cannot agree as to the value of the shares, each party shall select an arbitrator and the two arbitrators so selected shall elect a referee. A majority vote of the three shall determine the value. Such offer shall be in writing, signed by the shareholder, shall be sent by registered or certified mail to the corporation at its principal place of business; and shall remain open for acceptance by the corporation for a period of 30 days from the date of mailing. If the corporation fails or refuses within such period to make satisfactory arrangements for the purchase of such shares, the shareholder shall have the right to dispose of his shares as he may see fit.

On the death of any shareholder, the corporation shall have the right to purchase all shares owned by such shareholder immediately prior to his death on the terms set forth above, and this provision shall be binding on the personal representative of the shareholder.

Each share certificate issued by the corporation shall have printed or stamped thereon the following legend: "These shares are held subject to certain transfer restrictions imposed by the articles of incorporation of the corporation. A copy of such articles is on file at the principal office of the corporation".

VII. MANAGEMENT OF CORPORATION

The corporation shall not have a board of directors. Rather, all corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of this corporation shall be managed under the direction of, the shareholders of the corporation.

VIII. INDEMNIFICATION

The corporation shall indemnify any present or former officer, employee, or agent of the corporation in the manner set out and provided for in the Act.
