Sir or Maddam,

The UBR Instructions that I received required a payment of $550.00 to the Florida's Department of State. As Welford, Inc. is young with little cash flow I questioned the state on how the company would be levied such a high tax. I spoke with a very helpful gentleman at the UBR Division of Corporations who explained that I should have received a letter earlier this year explaining that $150.00 be paid to the state to maintain my S corporation. I examined all tax documents in my files and could find no such form.

My business correspondence is not on Glenn Dr., but rather at the following location:

Welford, Inc
7143 State Rd 54 #122
New Port Richey, FL 34653 USA

All business letters including IRS forms are sent to the above address. This is what probably caused the delay in responding to the UBR.

I hope you will accept the $150.00 fee. I trust you understand that I did not purposely ignore your letter as it was directed to the incorrect address. To avoid this confusion in the future I changed the business address in blocks 2 and 3 of the UBR and requested a Certificate of Status in block 5.

I apologize for any misunderstanding. Should you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact me at the above address or at (727) 457-6375.

Kind regards,

Glenn J. Hanff
Welford, Inc.
