Dear Sir or Madam:

One of my neighbors just gave me this form that he had kept in his home while I was out of the country. He apologized for the delay in handing me this form. My corporation is related to the real estate business and I work out of my apartment here in Miami.

I would like to apologize myself for the delay in sending you this form, but as I explained, I did not get the form on time for filing.

Please waive the penalties involved in the filing. In the future, I will make sure that this form is mailed in time before the due date. I am enclosing a check in the amount of $150.00 hoping that the waiving of the penalties is done, for which I will be very grateful.

Please accept my thanks.

Sincerely,

Johanna S. Araujo
President
