Dear Division of Corporations Representative:

I've spent all my savings and failed. Steele10, Inc never has and never will do business, much less earn the fortune I imagined. It's just not as easy as those ads on the internet make self-employment appear. After four months with no income, on the doorstep of bankruptcy, hunger and homelessness, I had three job offers:

- (1) making home porno movies for a twitchy, wild-eyed crack freak who wanted to send his driver to pick me up
- (2) giving enemas to "Danny" in his Century Village apartment
- (3) doing the same boring thing I've been doing most of my life

I chose to do the same boring thing I've been doing most of my life. I'm not self-employed, and Steele10, Inc isn't worth the paper it's written on, but I get a paycheck.

The completed forms to dissolve the corporation are enclosed. I pray this nightmare I've created for myself ends soon. I got in way over my head.

Sincerely yours,

Donna J Steele
