I am writing on behalf of my company Olympus Bikes. We have received a letter from the Division of Corporation stating we have not paid a late fee and our report can not be filed.

I wish I had a quick fix for this problem but it seems that our mail and most of our tax information has been held from us because of a mix up in address information as well as all corporation documents.

We have recently discovered from the IRS that our company's address was attached to a Mexican restaurant in Tampa Florida, which evidently has much trouble with back taxes and has some how not been very honest when receiving our mail and using our tax ID#. I wish I could report more about this Mexican restaurant but the IRS will not divulge any info to help me and my case.

I recently spoke with a representative of your office who assured me that we could keep our corporation in tact without paying a late fee if we submitted a letter stating our situation and request.

We are a custom bicycle manufacturer and have no affiliation with a Mexican restaurant. This is just one of many letters I have to write and I am asking you, can you please help me with the late fee.

Sincerely,
James Long
President, Olympus Bikes
