To Whom,

I'm sending you this letter asking that the late penalty fee of $550.00 be waved and that the original processing fee of $150.00 be granted for the 2002 Uniform Business Report.

This final notice to file was the first time I became aware of this process. The original correspondence dealing with the UNIFORM BUSINESS REPORT never got to me because I moved to where my new McDonald's is located in Ormond Beach. This move was done shortly after setting up my corporate I.D. with the state with my older address. I did have a forwarding address set up with the Post Office from my old address of Palm Harbor Florida later. My old address is what is on your records for mailing and principle place of business. I apologize for not correcting the addresses with the state sooner. I believe that the first few mailings got lost since you did send them to my old address. This final notice, some how, did get forwarded from the Post Office. Being in business for myself for the first time since 10/02, I was unaware of this report.

Sincerely,

Jess J. Hooton Jr.
