To Whom It May Concern:

Please accept the attached uniform business report with the $150.00 fee. This is late because I did not receive the report initially because I was hospitalized and have been very ill. Also, the postman put the report in the wrong mail box which caused a delay. The company has a new address which is indicated on the attached report.

I called the Division of Corporations and a representative said you would waive the $400.00 late charge because I was ill and initially did not receive the report. I have just recovered from my illness and am sending the report to you now. Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Lorne Smith, President

P.S. Please take notice of my new business and mailing address information on the attached uniform business report. Please do not send anything back to the address currently in your system as I will not receive it. Thank you very much.
