h. To engage in the brokerage business, on behalf of itself or others, including but not limited to the business and professions of real estate, securities, insurance and mortgage and to do any and all business which may be delegated to agents or brokers by principals and to conduct and operate general agency and brokerage business of every kind and description.

i. To do all things which are lawful under the Laws of the State of Florida, which are necessary, suitable, convenient or proper for the accomplishment of any of the purposes, or attainment of any or all of the objects of the corporation or incidental to the powers herein named which shall at any time appear conducive or expedient for the protection or benefit of the corporation either as holder of or interested in any property or otherwise, with all the powers now or hereafter conferred by the Laws of the State of Florida upon corporations.

j. For the accomplishment of any object on or about its business or affairs, to incur debts without limit, and to raise, borrow and secure the payment of money in any lawful manner.

k. The powers specified herein shall be construed both as purposes and powers and shall be in no wise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from, the terms of any other clause in this or any other article, but the purposes and powers specified in each of the clauses herein shall be regarded as independent purposes and powers, and the enumeration of specific purposes and powers shall not be construed to limit or restrict in any manner the meaning of general terms or of the general powers of the corporation; nor shall the expression of one thing be deemed to exclude another; although it be of like nature not expressed.

ARTICLE FOUR

The Corporation is authorized to issue 100 shares of $1.00 par value common stock which shall be designated "Common Stock." Such shares shall have unlimited voting rights and shall be entitled to receive the net assets of the corporation upon dissolution.

ARTICLE FIVE

Every shareholder, upon the sale for cash of any new stock of this corporation of the same kind, class or series as that which he already holds shall have the right to purchase his pro rata share thereof (as nearly as may be done without the issuance of fractional shares) at the price at which it is offered to others.
