To Department Of State,

Yesterday I talked to a gentlemen in your office and he said I could send you a check for USD 150,- since I never received the first Uniform Business Report for USD 150,-

The Finnish American Publishing Corporation is a new business and they told me that I will receive after Christmas a form that's called: Uniform Business Report, so I was waiting for it and it came during my stay in Finland July month.

Since I am a new business owner I did not know about these payments and that I should have called and asked for the form.

When I received the form I called and asked why the amount is so high as USD 550,- and an accountant told me to call you since I never received the first one. Now I know how the system is working so I will know better for next year.

I do hope you accept my USD 150,- I am sending you now since I did not know about these forms.

I hope you understand.

Sincerely,

Gunilla Norras-Laitamaki
