Dear Sir or Madam,

I recently received your second notice for filing for incorporated status. According to your records I should have received the first notice, but I do not recall seeing it. Previously all my mail regarding Vandalay Investments Inc. was being forwarded to my local attorney who was handling my affairs regarding these matters. I have not heard from my attorney in many months, so I guess we have parted ways. My attorney was the one who initially convinced me I needed to get incorporated, filed for the articles of incorporation, and handled any fees etc. My guess is that in the beginning of 2002 my attorney stopped handling anything regarding Vandalay Investments. I am new at this and I was depending on my attorney to handle all of this.

Vandalay Investments is basically a partnership between my brother, Jeff Farris and myself. The company was formed so we could build a retirement home for our parents, and rent the home out until our parents move in a few years from now. I am not a large company that can afford a $400 fine. Personally I find it hard to justify being incorporated, but that is another matter. I guess I am asking for mercy this one time regarding the $400 fine. Now that I will be handling my mail regarding Vandalay Investment, hopefully these problems will not occur in the future. Please accept my $150 check for fees associated with the corporation.

Sincerely,

Gregory E. Farris

President

Vandalay Investments Inc.
