After speaking with you, Barbara, we are writing this letter to explain the reasons why your office has not received the Uniform 2002 Business Reports for the above referenced corporations:

Our accountant moved back to Cleveland, OH back in August. Prior to the accountants move, we handed him the Uniform 2002 Business Reports to complete and submit in our behalf. We trusted that our accountant would handle this for us. We were not comfortable completing them ourselves because this is our first time owning a corporation and wanted to make sure that everything was completed properly. Unfortunately we lost communication with him during his transitional period, thus putting a major strain on our 20-year friendship, however he was just recently in touch with us and was very apologetic and upset because he found the reports and noticed that they had not been filed with your office. He has since then forwarded them to us.

Due to this unfortunate set of circumstances, we are pleading with you to please reinstate our corporations. We have been working very hard this past year to make our companies a success. We have literally spent thousands to build and develop these corporations. We have poured every cent into these corporations. We went through a near financial disaster, which we are just pulling out of.

Also, during this same time period we had a family member who was shot and nearly lost his life, also putting a major strain on our family.

Barbara, as per our conversation and your request, we are forwarding to you the completed Uniform 2002 Reports for the above referenced corporations, along with a check for $458.75 to cover the fees.

We thank you for being so compassionate and understanding. Please feel free to contact us at (561) 523-1180 or (561) 969-6588.

Sincerely,

James K. Devericks
