Dear Division of Corporations:

Yesterday I talked with one of your representatives by telephone about the pending Dissolution notice we received and was informed that the reason it was rejected is because there was a change in procedure that mailing addresses could not be a PO Box number. They noted that our $ 150.00 filing fee had been posted to our account.
I explained that right after we filed our original annual report (copy of original as filed enclosed) our corporate P.O. Box 2597 had expired at the Post Office and that we did not renew it for another year. We consequently, did not receive any prior notices regarding our original filing. We have enclosed a new filing with the appropriate mailing addresses and change of registered agent. The representative suggested that I send you this letter and request that the corporation be reinstated and any penalties and late filing fees by waived. This letter serves as that request, as this is the filing of our first annual report for Global Pacific, Inc. We apologize for any inconvenience that this may have caused due to our lack of knowledge and inexperience about the mailing address and the filing of these forms. We appreciate your forbearance in this matter and hope that you will accept this new filing and notify us of your disposition

Respectfully yours,

Richard M. Metcalf, Vice President
