Gentlemen:

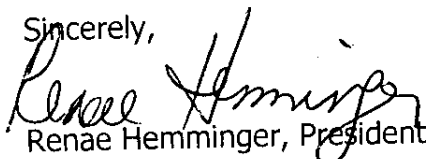

After speaking with your office today, I was informed that back in March, 2003 you forwarded me a letter stating that I was missing information to complete my 2003 corporate form. I received that letter on March 6th, (copies enclosed) and spoke with Justin at your department on receipt as you can see from the notes inscribed on the front of the letter. He stated that there was no Federal ID and when I asked him to check again, because in fact there was a Federal ID number on the Uniform Business Report he stated that yes, in fact there was a number and to disregard this letter.

What I need to know is, does the left hand know what the right hand is doing or do you just not make notes in the files after speaking with people. Also enclosed for your review is a copy of the original UBR as originally filed on January 15, 2003. As you can see there is in fact a Federal ID number of 30-0083344, which is a valid ID number.

At this time I would appreciate your correcting your records to reflect that this form was in fact filed timely, and release administrative dissolution so that I may file my 2004 on line. I would also appreciate your handling this as soon as possible and notifying me in writing or e-mail at rhemm03@yahoo.com when this has been handled. I have submitted and was refused my election for exemption from workers comp due to the fact that I have an inactive corporation.

Thanking you in advance for your prompt attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Renae Hemminger, President
