To Whom This May Concern,

I recently received a Notice of Administrative Resolution. Concerned that it was in regards to a non-payment issue on my behalf, I checked my files and saw that indeed a payment had been made. I contacted your department and spoke to a representative by the name of Michelle Milligan. She informed me that a rejection letter had been mailed out to me in July. I did not receive the rejection letter nor any other correspondence pertaining to this issue. She then explained to me that the reason the Dissolution had been sent out was that the FEI number (block 4) had not been included on the UBR. Upon her suggestion, I am writing you to ask that you waive the penalty cost. I am enclosing a copy of the UBR and the IRS issued EIN.

I appreciate your time and hope that this clears up the matter at hand. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Connie S. Tomlinson
President, Gulf Coast Staffing.
