To whom It May Concern:

Re: Uniform Business Report

Enclosed find the replacement UBR form which I received and completed today.

As you are probably aware we are a brand new business. This is our first Florida based business. I was not aware of the UBR until a business neighbor asked me if I had returned it on time. I didn't know what he was talking about, as we never received one.

That was May 17th

I called your office immediately and spoke to Christen who suggested that I write you a letter to explain the situation. Unfortunately, no form arrived so I called again a few days ago and left a voice mail and received the form today.

Had I received it initially I certainly would have returned it by May 1st and payed $150 rather than wait a few weeks and have to pay $550. We really can't afford it. We are struggling as is and would appreciate whatever you can do to help us under the circumstances.

Thank you for your help and understanding.

Sincerely,

David Dick
