Dear Justin,

I have called the phone number you provided and upon their advice and our accountants will resend the $300.00 for 2002 and 2003. We think that possibly the report was sent to an address that I lived at for a short time in 2002. I did not receive a report this year either but my parents pay a uniform tax and advised me about it and then our accountant supplied me with the form to return in time to avoid penalties, which I did (note date on check). I also would have paid for last year if I had known for I am very conscious about keeping bills paid and up to date in my business. I hope that we can come to terms with this matter and go forward or I may have to dissolve my corporation. I have enclosed the original paperwork, copy of previous check and new check for your records.

Thank you for your time and assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,

James E. Parks
