To Whom It May Concern;

Enclosed please find our completed Uniform Business Report (UBR), along with the one hundred fifty dollars filing fee. With this letter we are requesting your consideration to waive the penalty fee, since this was the only UBR we have received. In the past, and continuously to our dismay, our correspondence has been delivered incorrectly to the 112th STREET address, rather than 112th TERRACE. This has been an inconvenient and very annoying situation that we have tried to correct with the post office to no avail.

In addition to this nuisance, our local post master in the past has delivered notices requesting that the mail be dropped off at the post office/US mail boxes, to deter mail theft. Unfortunately, this does not protect delivery of our mail. Again, we strongly appreciate your consideration to waive the penalty fee at this time, due to the above mentioned circumstances. We are considering a change of address for our correspondence in the very near future.

If you would like any further information to this matter, please contact me at (786)402-2824 or (305)557-6856.

Sincerely,

Eber N. Afre
