ARTICLE III

PURPOSE

The South Dade Monitor, Inc., shall be a Weekly Newspaper publication

The Monitor will be a for-profit newspaper that cover news of all kind and all sectors. However, it will focus on the issues that effects the social and economic base, health, life-style, education and heritage of the black communities and households of South Dade, Florida. We will highlight events that relate to the black experience and offer a view of the news which will promote positive economic and social growth within black households and communities.

Understand that knowledge is the key that open all doors, and learning is the window through which we view life and the experiences of others. From that perspective, the goal of The South Dade Monitor is to report International, national, state and local news that directly impacts black neighborhoods, black families and their children. If it is true that the more you know about someone, the easier it is to understand them. Then the South Dade Monitor will be an invaluable tool in knowing and understanding our neighbors, and helping other nationalities know and understand us.
