Re: Lock-Tech Data Archiving Corp.

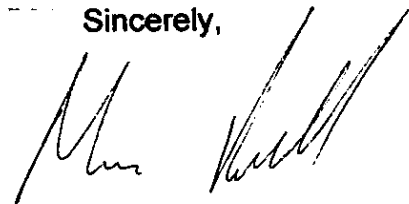

Dear Sir or Madam;

I'm writing you today to request that you accept my belated Uniform Business Report and that you waive the late fee. I apologize for the inconvenience of not receiving my fee; resulting in the dissolve of the corporation.

My attorney informed me of this error yesterday and directed me to call your office. I did not receive the UBR this year due to an incorrect address. I called the owner of the business to where the form may have been sent, but was told that no paperwork was received. Yesterday, I talked with a representative at your office and explained my situation. I was asked to write this letter, explaining the problem, and submit the UBR form with the standard $150 fee.

I sincerely appreciate your understanding, and assistance in this matter. I can also assure you that this mistake will not go overlooked in the future.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Matthew Powell', with a stylized, sweeping flourish at the end.
