Re: Corporate Reinstatement
#-P01000092929

Attention: Tyrone Scott

Dear Mr. Scott,

I am in receipt of your letter dated May 22, 2003 number 603A00032126 along with our application and check in the amount of $300.00, and were you stated that the reinstatement fees were $900.00. As I understood when I called your office earlier that day, that I should write a letter explaining the reason why I didn't received any correspondence regarding the annual report for 2002.

When I incorporated back in September of 2001, we immediately purchase a business in Tampa, Florida and in the same year I moved to Tampa. I could honestly say that this being t my first business venture, I was not aware of these reports nor did my attorney mention it to based on my recollection. I was never forwarded any forms nor received any correspondence from your agency by the post office. I came to find out of the dissolution through my accountant who is trying to implement this year a system of keeping track of his client's annual reporting.

Based on the above explanation, I respectfully request reinstatement without any additional fee and penalties. Your attention in this matter would be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Mutaz Elbooz , President
