Dear Mr. Dunlap,

I am sending you this letter of explanation of the series of events that has occurred, as you requested, and am looking forward to you resolving this for us. We received a note from Fish Window Cleaning, Inc. in Elfers Florida, along with a letter from the State dated May 23, 2005, (Ref #P98000020307) and our check in the amount of $150.00. The note from Fish stated that the letter was intended for our office in Naples Florida, using the corporation name Collier County Window Cleaning, Inc. The State letter mentioned that to avoid the $400.00 late fee, we needed to file (in reality it would mean that we would "refile".) within 30 days. We sent a new check and the report (this was our 2nd report) to the State and did so within 30 days of that letter. We then received a letter (Ref #P01000093030) that stated that our check for $150.00 and the report were received but not filed because we did not include the $400.00 late fee.

I called the State office and discussed this with Jessica. She then forwarded me to you. I'm confident that you will resolve this and would appreciate it if you would fax me a confirmation that you have so that I can close this file.

Thanks in advance...

Beth Dorris
