Durable Power of Attorney

Known All Men by These Presents, that I, Krishna Gidwani of Celebration, FL., do hereby constitute and appoint my dad, Gope Gidwani of Canton, MA. To be my true sufficient and lawful representative, for me and in my name and for my use to sell, mortgage, transfer and deliver any and all of my real and personal property, including but not limited to, stocks, bonds, or other muniments of title, and to sign, seal, execute and deliver and all papers or instruments necessary, proper or convenient therefore, and to collect dividends, profits or any income whatsoever belonging to me, to endorse any checks, notes or drafts payable to my order, and in my name and stead to collect any and all claims and demands of every nature and description which I may now or hereafter have against any person, persons, or corporations whatsoever, and on my behalf to sue for any and all sums of money now or hereafter due me or for any rights that I may now or hereafter have in any court of law or equity and to settle adjust or compromise all claims and demands in which I am or may in the future become interested, and, generally, to do all acts and take all steps which in his judgment are necessary, convenient, or expedient in the management of my property and affairs, herby giving my said representative full power to act for me and in relation to my affairs, business and property as fully and with like effect as I could act as if personally present, and hereby ratifying and confirming all the acts of my said attorney done by virtue and in pursuance of these presents. This Power of Attorney shall not be affected by my subsequent disability or incapacity and it is my intention that this power of attorney be governed by the uniform Durable Power of Attorney Act (Massachusetts General Laws Chapter 201B)

In witness Whereof, I hereunto set my hand and seal this 18th day of January 2008
