RE: Enclosed Notice of Administrative Dissolution

This letter is written in response to the Notice of Administrative Dissolution or Revocation we have recently received. We request that the Department of State consider reinstating Rebel Trailer Services, Inc. and waiving the reinstatement fee because we unintentionally did not respond to the attached letter dated September 17, 2002. We earlier had filed the annual report and paid the $550.00 fee. The report was returned for a correction because we did not use the correct Federal Employer Identification Number in Block 4.

My wife, Judith Cook, handles all administrative matters of the corporation and was on vacation at the time the letter was received. As a result no action was taken to resubmit the report timely.

I pray that the state will allow us to continue as Rebel Trailer Services, Inc. due to the fact that our failure to respond to the September 17th letter was not intentional. I have included a completed Application for Reinstatement for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Billie J. Cook
