To Whom it May Concern:

On or about July 2, 2002 I received my Uniform Business Report for the first time and noticed that the fee was quite a bit larger than I was expecting. I then called the Division a few days later to inquire about the increased fee. The service person with I spoke informed me that this was not the first mailing and that I should have received a notice much earlier. When I told her that I had not received the notice, she suggested that I send in the original $150.00 fee and write this letter informing the Division that I had not received the original notice.

Thank you for your attention in this matter. Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at the above referenced number.

Sincerely,

Bill Truex
