Dear Sir(s),

Please accept this letter as notice that we did not receive our initial UBR paperwork this year and were therefore late in sending in our filing fee. The mistake was not caught on our part until after we received the second notice for the UBR. It is possible, since we are a fairly new corporation, that the paperwork was either not sent, improperly addressed or mishandled by our mail carrier or by our office. We apologize for any problems this may have caused and have included a check for the normal filing fee of $150.00 along with the UBR form and this letter. I have personally added the UBR dates to our deadline calendar and will be sure to file on time from now on. We would greatly appreciate it if you would waive the late charge this year and allow us to get back on track with our future filings.

Thank you for your consideration,

Alexander Davidowski
President, Mirador Studios, Inc.
