To whom it may concern,

As per my telephone conversation with your office I am writing this correspondence to inform your office that we did not receive any other mailings regarding the uniform business report. We have not received the certificate of status as well. The mailing address has changed as reflected on the UBR, and we have not had any other problems that we are aware of. I did notice that the mailing address is correct on the envelope that contained this notification. If you have any further questions please call me direct at 850-863-5255.

Thank you,

David S. Lanier
