Dear Kathy:

This letter is to inform your office of the problems made by the state processor who entered updated information on our UBR form from the year of 2001. Please find enclosed a copy of the UBR form submitted by our office updating the mailing address and principal place of business. Your office can plainly see the address, but in the information up dated by the state it is not even close to being right. your office never contacted us and told us of the admin dissolution or that we were no longer an active entity. After speaking to Kathy Ashton, she advised me due to the errors made by the state all penalties would be waved and to submit a check for $450. 00 written to the dep of state for the years of 2001, 2002 and 2003. Enclosed you will find the UBR form and a check. Our office thanks you ever so much for taking care of this matter.

Sincerely,
