To Whom it May Concern:

I spoke with Barbara on October 21, 2002 In regard that our corporation needed to be reinstated and advised her of our move to a new location and non receipt of our original renewal that I always forwarded on to my accountant as she handles all of our government matters by advising me as to what is due and when. Barbara advised me to make a note that in January of each year renewals are sent and advised to make a note in which I will do, she also stated to send a check in the amount of $150.00 for this years payment and to change our mailing address.

Please accept my apologies for any oversight that I have given this matter. If you have any questions please do not hesitate to call

Sincerely,

Justine Walker
