ARTICLE IV

AUTHORIZED SHARES

Section 4.1 Class, Number, Par and Description. The shares of stock authorized hereunder shall not be divided into classes and shall consist of one (1) class of common stock only. The aggregate number of shares of stock which the corporation shall be authorized to issue and have outstanding at any one time shall be limited to one thousand (1,000) shares at one dollar ($1.00) par value. These shares shall have unlimited voting rights and are entitled to receive the net assets of the corporation upon dissolution.

Section 4.2 Consideration. The consideration for the issuance of said shares, or any part thereof, shall be money current of the United States of America, or property or services of value at least equivalent to the stock issued as fixed and determined by the Board of Directors of said corporation. Whenever any share or shares of stock are issued in consideration of payment to be made in property or in services, the fair and just value of the property to be transferred or the services performed as a consideration for the issuance of said stock shall be affixed by the Board of Directors of the corporation. Any and all shares of stock of the corporation which shall be issued for the consideration, or for not less than the consideration in cash, property, or services, shall be fully paid and nonassessable.

Section 4.3 Preemptive Rights. The shareholders of the corporation shall have preemptive rights to purchase, upon prices, terms and conditions fixed by the Board of Directors, such of the shares of the stock of the corporation as may be issued for money or any property or services from time to time. The preemptive right of any shareholder shall be determined by the ratio of the authorized and issued shares of stock held by the shareholder to all shares of stock currently authorized and issued.

Section 4.4 Plurality Voting. Shareholder voting shall be on a plurality basis. The shareholders of the corporation shall not be entitled to vote their shares cumulatively in elections for the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE V

RESTRICTIONS

Section 5.1 Shareholder Qualifications. Only individuals who themselves are duly licensed or otherwise legally authorized within the State of Florida to render the same professional service as the corporation shall be permitted to be shareholders of the corporation. No shareholder shall enter into a voting trust agreement or any other type agreement vesting another person with the authority to exercise the voting power of any or all of such shareholder's stock.

Section 5.2 Disqualification. Any officer, shareholder, agent, or employee of the corporation that has been rendering professional service to the public that becomes legally disqualified to render such professional service within the State of Florida or accepts employment that, pursuant to existing law, places restrictions or limitations upon such shareholder's continued rendering of such professional services shall sever all employment with, and financial interest in the corporation forthwith.

Section 5.3 Transfer. No shareholder of the corporation may sell or transfer any of such shareholder's shares of stock in the corporation except to another individual who is then authorized and licensed to render the corporation's professional services and then only after the proposed sale or transfer shall have been first approved at a shareholder's meeting specially called for such purpose.

Section 5.4 Death. Upon the death of a shareholder, such shareholder's stock shall be subject to purchase by the corporation and by the other shareholders at such price and upon such terms and conditions and in such manner as may be provided in the Bylaws of the corporation, or by written agreement between and/or among the corporation and/or its shareholders, in a manner consistent with law and these Articles. If not so provided, such stock shall immediately be deemed offered first for sale to the corporation failing which to the remaining shareholders who may purchase on a prorata basis. The purchase price shall be equal to the fair market value and paid in cash at closing within 60 days of death, but effective at death. If the parties disagree as to fair market value, each party shall select an appraiser who shall select a single appraiser to make such determination. All parties shall share the appraisal expense on such equitable basis.

as determined by the appraiser.

Section 5.5 Further Bylaw Provisions. The shareholders are specifically authorized from time to time to adopt Bylaws not inconsistent herewith imposing further restrictions and providing for the purchase or redemption of shares of stock.

ARTICLE VI
GENERAL

Section 6.1 Amendment. The Articles of Incorporation may be amended from time to time only by action of the Board of Directors and the shareholders in accordance with applicable law.

Section 6.2 Organizational Meeting. After the corporate existence begins, an organizational meeting of any initial directors and/or incorporators, as the case may be, shall be held, at the call of a majority, to elect directors if needed, appoint officers, adopt bylaws, and transact other necessary business. The person(s) calling the meeting shall give three (3) days' advance written notice of the time and place of the meeting to each person called.

Section 6.3 Incorporators. The name and address of the incorporator executing this instrument is as follows: JOHN A. COLTON - 1776 RINGLING BOULEVARD, SARASOTA, FLORIDA 34236.
