To Whom It May Concern,

This letter is to request abatement of the penalty I'm being charged for not filing my annual report prior to May 1, 2002. I went through an attorney locally to do my corporate filing. When I received my annual report I took it to his office for him to handle. It wasn't until I received my second notice that his secretary explained it was my responsibility to mail the report in with the $150.00. I then took the report to my new bookkeeper who explained how the process works and helped me with the filing. With this being my first time filing I thought I was doing the proper thing by taking the information to my attorney. Please take this matter into consideration. Your cooperation will be greatly appreciated.

Thank you,

John Dix
President
