Dear Ms. Roberts,

I am the President of Ker/Lin Electrical Contraction, Inc., a Florida corporation. I found out last week that my corporation was administratively dissolved by the State for some time. This was the first time I heard of this. After speaking with my attorney, I understand that it must have been caused by our moveing the office back in December 2002. After our move I did not receive any state filing reports or notices. I am requesting a waiver of the penalty portion to reinstate my company the corporation.

Sincerely,

Frank Andia, President
Ker/Lin Electrical Construction, Inc.

RE: Reinstatement for Ker/Lin Electrical Contraction, Inc.
#P01000106128

Dear Ms. Roberts:

My client, Ker/Lin Electrical Contraction, Inc. recently learned that their corporation was administratively dissolved in September 2003. This fact was previously unknown to its President until this point. The company moved its offices, and it did not receive the annual filing reports, nor any notice of any impending administrative dissolution. Therefore he is requesting a waiver of the penalty portion to reinstatement the corporation.

Pursuant to your instructions, enclosed herein, find a letter of explanation by Frank Andia, the company's President, my client's completed original Corporate Reinstatement form together with his corporate check in the amount of $450.00 to cover the State's reinstatement charges for the years 2003, 2004 ad 2005.

My client thanks you in advance for your assistance in this matter, and understands better the State's filing events that should in her future.

Very truly,

Michael Maliszewski, Esq.
