Re: Incorporation of Meric Enterprises, Inc.

Dear Ms. Wilkins:

The Articles of Incorporation which you requested be prepared for Meric Enterprises, Inc. are enclosed herewith. Please sign as the incorporator as well as for the appointment of Registered Agent in the two places where your signature is required.

Once you have executed the Articles in the presence of a Notary Public, make two copies of the document, retain one copy for your file and deliver the original Articles and one copy to the Florida Department of State. You will also need to remit a check made payable to the Florida Department of State in the sum of $70.00 representing the filing fee. You should send the check, the original and copy of the Articles to:

Florida Department of State
Division of Corporations
Post Office Box 6327
Tallahassee, Florida 32314

Once the Articles have been properly filed, the State will retain the original Articles of Incorporation but will send a copy of the Articles stamped filed and the date on which it was filed back to you. (This is the purpose of you sending a copy to them as well as the original).

Once the Articles have been returned from the State, you may then order your corporate kit. We recommend that you call Blackstone Legal Supplies and their address and telephone number is 3732 Northwest 16th Street, Fort Lauderdale, Florida 33311 and 954-791-2100. You will need to give them the following information:

1. Name of Corporation: Meric Enterprises, Inc.
2. Florida 2001 Corporation
3. Number of Shares/Par Value: 500/$1.00 par value

You should also tell them that you want the kit that is "pre-printed, blank". They will understand what that means.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,

SANDRA LYNN CLASEN

ARTICLE XI

Shareholders have preemptive rights to subscribe to or purchase all shares of stock of this Corporation, whether issued initially or at any time hereafter, and the consideration for same to be determined by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE XII

There shall be no cumulative voting for directors.

ARTICLE XIII

No contract or other transaction between the Corporation and any other Corporation, and no act of the Corporation shall be affected in any way or invalidated by the fact that any of the directors of the Corporation are pecuniarily or otherwise interested in, or are directors or officers of, such other Corporation. Any director, individually, or any firm of which any director may be a member, may be a party to, or may be pecuniarily otherwise interested in, any contract or transaction of the Corporation, provided that the fact that he or such firm is so interested shall be disclosed or shall have been known to the Board of Directors at which action upon such Corporation who is also a director or officer of such other Corporation or is so interested may be counted in determining the existence of a quorum at any meeting of the Board of Directors which shall authorize any such contract or transaction, and may vote thereat to authorize any such contract or transaction, with like force and effect as if he were not such director or officer of such other Corporation or not so interested.

ARTICLE XIV

The Corporation and its common stockholders, or the stockholders of the Corporation among themselves, may enter into any agreement restricting the transferability, assignment, encumbrance or pledge of the stock of this Corporation, whether voluntarily or involuntarily. Any such agreement may confer upon the Corporation or the stockholders, or both, the option of first refusal or mandatory purchase in the event any stockholder desires to transfer, assign, encumber or pledge, his stock with or without consideration. Any such agreement may include such restrictions during the lifetime of any stockholder, or upon the death or legal incompetence of any stockholder. Nothing contained in these Articles of Incorporation or the By-Laws of the Corporation shall be construed as authorizing a transfer of such stock upon the books of the Corporation in violation of any agreement.

ARTICLE XV

Dividends may be paid to shareholders out of unreserved capital surplus and unrestricted earned surplus of the Corporation. A director shall not be liable for dividends illegally declared, distributions illegally made to stockholders or any other action taken by reliance in good faith upon the financial statements of the Corporation represented to him to be correct by an officer having charge of its books of account or a financial statement certified by a Certified Public Accountant to fairly reflect the financial condition of the Corporation, unless such act shall be in good faith in determining the amount available for dividends or distribution, he considers the assets to be of their book value.

ARTICLE XVI

A. The Corporation shall indemnify any director made a party to any action, suit or proceeding by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of his being or having been a director or an officer of the Corporation which he served as such at the request of the Corporation, against the reasonable expenses, including but not limited to attorney's fees, actually and necessarily incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action, suit or proceeding, or in connection with an appeal therein, except in relation to matters as to which such director may be adjudged to have been guilty of negligence or malfeasance in the discharge of his duties to the Corporation.

B. The Corporation shall indemnify any director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation for all acts, and under all circumstances provided for in Florida Statutes 607.014, and upon determination by the Board of Directors, the Corporation shall provide insurance against loss to the Corporation for such indemnification as provided by such law.

ARTICLE XVII

No director shall be held liable or responsible for action taken by the Board of Directors acting under the provisions or in the manner authorized by these Articles of Incorporation or the By-Laws of the Corporation, nor for action taken by the Board of Directors in reliance on reasonable ground or probable cause for believing that the Board is acting under the provisions or in the manner authorized by the Articles of Incorporation or By-Laws. The defense of any legal, equitable or other action, suit or proceeding brought against a director, either individually or as director, because or as a result of any action taken by the Board of Directors, shall be conducted by counsel for the Corporation, unless the action, suit or proceeding is brought by or on behalf of the Corporation, including but not limited to expenses incurred in the course of attending trials, conferences, depositions, hearings and meetings, shall be paid by the Corporation, and in the event of a judgment or decree being rendered against the director, the Corporation shall indemnify and save him harmless.

ARTICLE XVIII

If any legal, equitable or other action, suit or proceeding brought by or on behalf of the Corporation against a director, either individually or as director, shall result in a judgment, decree or decision in favor of the director, the Corporation shall be liable to and shall reimburse the director for all costs and expenses of the director in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, including but not limited to reasonable attorney's fees, court costs and expenses incurred in the course of attending trials, conferences, depositions, hearings, meetings and appeals of the disposition of all such action.

ARTICLE XIX

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended in the manner provided by law, and may be amended without adoption at a formal meeting if all of the directors and all of the stockholders of the Corporation eligible to vote sign a written statement manifesting their intention that an amendment to the Articles of Incorporation be adopted.

I, the undersigned, being the original incorporator to the foregoing Corporation, do hereby certify that the foregoing constitutes the Charter of the above Corporation.

WITNESS my hand and seal this 20th day of October, 2001.
