Dear Sir or Madam:

I write following the instruction of one of your representatives. I am a Director of the above referenced corporation and we are respectfully requesting a waiver or the abatement of the penalty that was imposed on our organization because a late filing of the Annual Business report for 2002.

Through this letter we intend to show reasonable cause for said three day delay. The situation is that we are a new in the country; do not know the procedures, were not properly advise and the Repost maybe was sent to another address, since our address is stated wrong, we live in 2545 Hunter RUN WAY, WESTON FL 33327 and not 2545 Run Way...as stated in the records.

I apologize for any inconvenience, but truly appreciate your cooperation assistance since it will be a significant hardship to pay such a penalty. We commit to take care of this matter in the future.

We also include with this letter the annual report for 2002 and 2003 as instructed, along with the corresponding $300 payment for the two years. We thank you in advance for your understanding and assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,

Isilio Pirela
