To: the Florida Department of State, Division of Corporations

I am sending this letter to tell you that I was unaware of the fact that my company was inactive.

This unfortunately happened because I never received any letter or document from you to pay my yearly dues.

This was surely caused by my change of address which occurred in 2004 but was not yet recorded in your files which has forbidden me from getting your letters.

I have to apologies for that fact. The former corporation address was 3573 NW 4th ave - Boca Raton, FL 33431 which is not valid anymore since early 2004. The new address is 3265 Trafalger circle - Boca Raton, FL 33434.

One person which I spoke to at the Division of Corporations told me that I had to send to you the reinstatement form filled as well as this letter explaining the fact that I didn't received any notice from you, and include a check of $150 per year (= $300 dollars).

I apologies again and I am including a check of $300 dollars (for 2 years of late fee of $150 per year). I hope that you can reinstate my company quickly with an active status. I am filing at the same time for a change of address for this situation not to happen again.

Sorry again and Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Jean-Philippe Fleurian
