We ask your consideration regarding the attached correspondence. We are a new corporation, having just started in November of last year. We cannot find the initial forms mailed to us and don't remember receiving them. Our accountant raised the question as to our having filed the report, which alerted us to our failure to file. We beg your indulgence in this matter and ask that we be allowed to avoid the late penalty.

We await your response.

Sincerely,

Raymond D. Michaels, Sr.
