Re: UBR mistake by your office

Dear Division:

I am writing to you today about a mistake by the DOC. I recently received a letter stating that you did not have the UBR for Gulf Coast Renaissance Faire.

I called and was told by LAURA (doc. Section) that the screen showed PAID/DEPOSITED regarding our UBR fee.

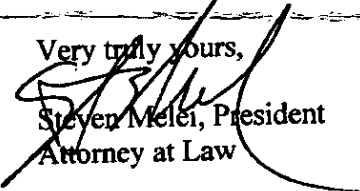

I mailed the report in a timely fashion and it was submitted on time to your office with the proper fees. You cashed my check but sent a return letter for me to fill out because we forgot to write our FEIN. I sent the corrected form with the EIN immediately upon receiving it in a timely fashion.

I never heard from the division until now when you sent another UBR (as if we never did one or paid) requesting $550.00 and stating we never submitted a report. This is wrong. Your own personnel have assured me the report is filed and you have our money and all this was done before the time limit you set.

We ask that you update your records to reflect the fact that you have our timely filed report and fees and that you update your system to remove any "late fees" or other charges that you are seeking.

--If you have any questions, please give me a call. Thank you for your assistance.

Very truly yours,

Steven Melei, President
Attorney at Law
