I am writing in response to a notice of dissolution on my company, PP Modeling & Talent Agency, Inc. The UBR was received and responded to by January, 19th of 2002. As of that day I was awaiting my Employee Identification Number. The EIN was received on 2-8-2002. I received notice that the UBR was incomplete and needed the EIN number. As I had received it by that time, I wrote it in and resent it. My check cleared on 2-6-2002. To my knowledge everything was fine. I then received this notice of dissolution to my dismay. I did not resend the UBR certified, but I did send it. I have attached the returned check and the letter from the Dept of the Treasury so that you have the dates before you. All information was had and there was no reason that you should not have received it. Possibly it was lost on the part of the Post Office or misplaced. I would never neglect my responsibilities to my Corporations. I ask that you look at the facts and reconsider this dissolution. Please don't hesitate to contact me if you need any further information. Thank you in advance for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Anicia Bragg
