To Whom It May Concern:

I opened up a new corporation La Rosa Trucking Service, Corp doc# P01000110873 on November 20th 2001. The person who opened up the corporation for me never told me I had to renew the corporation every year. I found out because I finally started operating on November of 2002 and when I tried to open a bank account they told me my corporation was inactive, I also realized that the address on the corporation was wrong and that's why I never received any correspondence for this corporation.

I am not blaming anyone but myself for not looking over my paper work, but I would like it if you can accept my apologies for over looking this issue and please accept my check to activate this corporation.

My address is on top of this letter, please accept my apologies. If you have any questions please call me at the number above.

Sincerely

Rene Fonseca
