June 11, 2002

To whom it may concern,

I had purchased a franchise last year, been incorporated, and filed a fictitious name. However, I have not been able to procure funding for the build out and have not yet opened the store. As a first time small business owner, I had no idea that I had to fill out the Uniform Business Report until today, when I saw the form while looking for the 2001 Corporate Income Tax Return, which I filled on the wrong form.

This oversight was not intentional, but due to my lack of knowledge and I hope you do not impose the $400.00 penalty.

Sincerely,

John C. Larkin
