To Whom It May Concern,

We are filing for re-instatement. After our first year as a Corporation, we failed to receive the re-instatement letter from the state. Since we'd never received one before we didn't know we should have received one then. We didn't know we could re-apply online and therefore our Corporation was dissolved in 2004.

I called the re-instatement office where they quickly explained the procedure and where to get the forms. I was told that since we didn't receive the initial re-instatement letter the penalty would be waived and all that is necessary is the form and all the past filing fees, $750.00

Please find enclosed the re-instatement form and the money order for the past fees. Thank you for your help with this situation.

Sincerely,

David C. Bledsoe
