Dear Sirs,

We hereby acknowledge your communication dated August 5th 2002 and apologize for the late response. It was not possible to respond sooner as I have only today been given possession of your letter having been out of contact with Millwall Mac Inc for several weeks.

I am currently resident of England and, due to my Visa privileges, have not been allowed to come in and out of the country and that is why I have not responded and resolved this issue earlier. I never received any correspondence relating to the 2002 Uniform Business Report until my first response with my $150.00 check on July 29, 2002. I never had any intentions of being late, but I was not able to respond by the due date.

For your information, we are a relatively new organization and at the time of writing we are still in the process of setting up our procedures. We are yet to provide any service or make any transaction involving sales tax, although we anticipate doing our first business of this nature in the near future.

We have sought to rectify any deficiency in our procedures by appointing an accountant* to assist in the filing process. We have asked that they communicate directly with you on our behalf. In the meantime, we ask for your cooperation and understanding whilst we ensure proper procedures are put in place for our business. We also ask that you waive any additional penalties currently on file.

We wish to assure you of our intention to fully comply with the various rules, regulations, and procedures of the Department of State.

Yours truly,

Douglas P. Humphris

* Our accountant is:
