To whom it may concern:

We received a new report which claims that our original report was not file, according to our records such report was file before the May cutoff date and our bank records indicate that our check was cash.

We recently move to a new location and some of our correspondence may have been lost, please update us regarding this so that we may correct our records.

We apologize for the last minute inquire (form said we have until September 13, 2002) but on the bottom of your form said to disregard this notice if the report was file which as I explain we did, it was only after I e-m your office to verify that we were up to date that I discover that a problem may exists.

Sincerely,

Luis Perez
