RE: Zapata Foods, Inc. - P01000113386
Corey Holdings, Inc. - P01000113390

Dear Sirs/Madam:

The undersigned represents Zapata Foods, Inc. and Corey Holdings, Inc. as it relates to its situation with failure to file their annual business report with your office. According to the corporate officers they did not receive either the first report indicating when and where they were to pay the corporate renewal fee or the July Notice. The year 2002 was the first year for this corporation was to renew as it was formed in 2001 and the officers were unfamiliar with the requirement until they received the attached reinstatement form. I enclose herewith a check from the company for the annual fee of $150.00 and would respectfully request your office consider waiving the penalty for this corporation. Clearly the corporation failed to timely file the Uniform Business Report for 2002. The officer's assure me that they now fully understand their obligation for the annual report and will not permit it to be filed untimely in the future.

Should your office require the late fee and not be in a position to reinstate the above referenced corporation, please so advise me so that I may advise my client of its options. I thank you for your attention and courtesies in this matter.

Respectfully,

Christopher J. Coleman
