Further to our conversations since August 15, 2005, this letter serves as a replacement for the original sent via UPS. As you know your associate overlooked or misplaced the letter of explanation in said package.

The corporation had not been receiving any correspondence from your office in the past years. Maybe it is a result of the change of address of the corporation. As a result, the filing became delinquent. However, after speaking with you, you made your calculations as to how much would be required to reinstate. The said amount was sent to you but your associate Andy Dunlap returned the paperwork asking for more money.

I hope this letter will serve its purpose in having you reinstate the corporation under the same conditions we discussed.

Thank You,
M. Duncan
