ARTICLE II-Commencement and Duration

The corporation is to commence its corporate existence on the date of subscription and acknowledgment of these articles of incorporation and shall exist perpetually thereafter until dissolved according to law.

ARTICLE III-Purpose

The corporation is organized for the purpose of transacting any and all lawful business.

ARTICLE IV-Styled Capital

The corporation is authorized to issue 100 shares of common stock no par value common stock.

Each outstanding share, regardless of class, shall be entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of the shareholders.

The shares of stock may be issued for such consideration, having a value not less than the par value of the shares issued therefor, as is determined from time to time by the board of directors, to be paid, in whole or in part, in cash or other property, tangible or intangible, or in labor or services actually performed for the corporation. Shares may not be issued until the full amount of the consideration therefor has been paid. Thereafter, such shares shall be deemed to be fully paid and nonassessable.

ARTICLE V-Board of Directors

All corporate powers shall be exercised by and under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed under the direction of, the board of directors.

Any and all of the powers and duties conferred to or imposed upon the board of directors, by resolution of the shareholders adopted at a special meeting called for that purpose, may be exercised or performed to such extent and by such person or persons as shall be provided by the shareholders. The corporation shall have three (3) directors initially. The number of directors may thereafter be increased or decreased from time to time in accordance with the bylaws of the corporation.

The names and street addresses of the initial directors who shall hold office until their successors, who shall be chosen at the first meeting of the stockholders, have qualified shall be:
