To Whom it May Concern,

My accountant brought it to my attention, that our annual corporate report had not been filed. I did not fully understand the importance of this report, and the fact that it needed to be filed yearly.

We are a new business, in fact, we have not even begun the corporation officially. We have not yet even established a bank account. Because there have thus far been no business, or bank transactions, I assumed there would be no need to file any tax reports.

I would greatly appreciate it if you would accept the original fee of $150.00, to file the Uniform Business Report. As we are not doing business at this time, our funds are very limited. I now realize the importance, and relevance of filing this document on a yearly and timely basis. I will assure you that this oversight, and misunderstanding will not happen in the future.

I thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Scott Sherman
